biennial YOUNG ARTISTS AUDITIONS

PIANO & STRINGS

LEVEL I:

- 30-minute professional quality, unedited video recording.
- Include a sufficient variety of musical styles and periods to meet the demands of a concert career.
- All works on the recording must be accompanied by piano only.

LEVEL II: NATIONAL SEMI-FINALS

- Full Recital program (approximately 70-minutes of music).
- Judges will hear no less than 20 minutes.
- At least 10-minutes of the recital music must be a legally published and obtained composition by a contemporary U.S. composer.*
- Entrant may choose the first selection to be performed.

LEVEL III: NATIONAL FINALS

- Piano – One complete concerto (not to exceed 30 minutes.)
- Strings – One concerto or major work composed for orchestra (not to exceed 30 minutes.) The orchestral part of all concertos will be played by a piano accompanist.
- Judges may also request a selection from the Level II Recital.

ACCOMPANISTS:

The entrant will furnish his or her own piano accompanist. An entrant unable to bring an accompanist to the finals can secure a list of available local area professional accompanists from the National Young Artist Chair. The entrant must make all arrangements with the accompanist.

MUSIC REQUIREMENTS:

No transcriptions or arrangements of original selections are allowed. Any standard edition may be used. No manuscripts of original compositions are permitted in any declared repertoire. All compositions must be published and available on the commercial market or available from rental libraries. Furnish one copy of unfamiliar works for use of the judges.

VOICE MAN'S & WOMAN'S

LEVEL I:

- 30-minute professional quality, unedited video recording.
- Include a variety of musical styles, periods and languages to meet the demands of a concert career.
- At least one aria should be included on the recording.
- Original language text must be used, except in the Slavic languages, for which translations may be used.
- Arias must be sung in the original key; art songs may be sung in keys suitable to the voice type.
- All works on the recording must be accompanied by piano only.

LEVEL II: NATIONAL SEMI-FINALS

- Full Recital program (approximately 70-minutes of music).
- Judges will hear no less than 20 minutes; at least 10-minutes of the recital must be by a contemporary composer.
- Include at least two arias in the program.
- Entrant may choose the first selection to be performed.

LEVEL III: NATIONAL FINALS

- Four arias – must include one Mozart, one legally published and obtained composition by a U.S. composer*, and two of the finalist's choice, plus an oratorio or cantata air.
- A score may be used for oratorio selection.
- Entrant will determine which selections to be heard and present them in concert format (not to exceed 30-minutes.)
- It is the prerogative of the judges to request an additional selection.

* An American composer will be considered either native born or one whose background and training have been largely in the United States. Contemporary will be interpreted to mean 20th and 21st centuries.
