The NFMG Gretchen E. Van Roy Music Education Scholarship is awarded annually to a junior majoring in music education at a college or university which is a member of the NFMG and which gives a degree in this field. If the school of music is not a member, the applicant must have an individual Student/Collegiate membership in the NFMG. A membership in the National Association for Music Education (NAFME) does not replace this requirement. The award is available at the beginning of the senior year and is payable to the institution.

AJUDICATION: Since this is not a performance scholarship, music educators will judge the applications and recommendations and determine the most highly qualified applicant. The schools of music recognize this scholarship in music education as a much-needed financial aid to the future music educators who may or may not be performers.
