

Circle City Ringers is an auditioned, bronze-level community handbell ensemble located in the greater Indianapolis, Indiana area. The group is a 501(c)(3) Non-Profit Organization and is a proud member of the Handbell Musicians of America (formerly American Guild of English Handbell Ringers (AGEHR)).

Our mission is to:

- Increase awareness of the art of English Handbell ringing
- Provide ongoing education about English Handbell techniques
- Build a distinguished reputation by performing locally and nationally in both sacred and secular contexts
- Achieve musical excellence as a professional-grade community ensemble
- Encourage others to learn about and experience the art of English Handbell ringing

We perform year-round and are available for many different types of appearances including:

- Concerts
- Weddings
- Corporate Events
- Holiday Parties
- Church / Religious Services
- Festivals & Civic Events
- Workshops & Presentations
