

NFMC MARY ALICE COX AWARD
Rules and Requirements
Annual Award*

JR 9-1

$2,000 – 1st Place; $1,500 – 2nd Place; $1,000– 3rd Place

The Mary Alice Cox Award was established in 2003 to honor Mary Alice Cox of Muncie, Indiana, for her service as Editor of Junior Keynotes magazine from 1983 to 2001. This award goes to a double bassist or a cellist for the purpose of further musical study. Awards of $2,000* (first place), $1,500* (second place) and $1,000* (third place) will be given each year to eligible students in the NFMC Junior Division. If no applicant is chosen, no awards will be given. The goal of this award is to encourage young string players toward a musical career.

Requirements:

1. The applicant must be a member of the National Federation of Music Clubs, either through junior club membership or individual junior membership.
2. Applicant must be an American citizen. Proof of citizenship will be subject to verification.
3. Applicant must not have reached the 19th birthday as of application deadline.
4. The applicant must submit the completed application plus any additional material to the NFMC website (<https://forms.nfmc-music.org>) no later than March 1 of the appropriate year.
5. The entry fee of $20.00 must be paid to be considered for the award. Entry fee can be paid at www.nfmc-music.org/payment.
6. Each submission must include the required audio (mp3 file), consisting of at least two pieces in contrasting style, written for cello or bass in original form (no video accept). One of the competition pieces must be by an American composer. The pieces may be accompanied by piano or played solo. Self-composed music is acceptable, even encouraged, if a copy of the written score is included. However, it may not be substituted for the required published American piece. Titles of the competition pieces and composers, including nationality must be identified on the file name of each recording. Time limits: Minimum – 10 minutes; Maximum – 15 minutes.
7. Verification of the junior's performance by the teacher and parent/guardian must be included along with a short recommendation letter from the teacher.
8. 1st place winners are not eligible to compete again.

Questions or concerns can be directed to the National Chair: Matt Miller - mattmillerbass@aol.com