The Executive Director will deposit all M&R donations in the Awards Account with designated donations transferred to the specified Awards account(s) and undesignated donations transferred to the FAMA account.

NFMC CHAPLAIN

Deceased Member List – State Presidents shall send a list of names of deceased members since the last NFMC meeting (names only, no donations) to the NFMC Chaplain who will format the, complete list of deceased members' names in alphabetical order by state and send it to the NFMC Executive Director.

TWO LISTS

The list of memorialized or honored members (minimum $25 contribution per memorialized or honored person) will be sent to the NFMC Executive Director by the NFMC M&R Chair.

The complete state presidents' list of deceased members will be sent to the NFMC Executive Director by the NFMC Chaplain.

Both lists will be printed and placed in the Convention/Conference Memorial and Recognition service program.

CREDENTIALS CHAIR

The Treasurer shall be the Credentials Chair.

OBTAINING CREDENTIALS

Voting Credentials may be obtained by either mail or e-mail from the Executive Director or designee by following the instructions on the form provided in the spring/summer issue of MCM.

QUALIFIED VOTERS (Bylaws, Article V, Section 3)

Qualified voters are members of the Board of Directors; appointed officers who are not members of the Board; Division and Committee Chairs; State Presidents or their alternates; Senior Individual members; and elected delegates from each organization holding active membership in the Senior or Student/Collegiate Divisions; and one Counselor to represent each active organization in the Junior Division.

FILE OF REGISTERED VOTERS

The Credentials Chair shall keep an alphabetical list of all voting persons registered for the National meeting. This list shall indicate the source of the voting privilege of each registrant and, if a delegate, the name of the organization represented. This list shall be used to identify voters as they enter the polling place. The Treasurer shall be in charge.

VOTING CREDENTIALS

Voting members are issued a voting credential, found in the registration packet.

YOUTH

For the purpose of convention registration, “Youth” shall be interpreted as being MEMBERS of the Student/Collegiate or Junior Division. Student/Collegiate Advisers and Junior Counselors shall be considered as adult registrants.

CONVENTIONS – ELECTIONS COMMITTEEAPPOINTMENT (Of the Elections Committee)

The President shall appoint an Elections Committee and the Committee Chair. The number on the committee shall be at least seven if the whole committee works the entire time, and twice that if there are two shifts dividing the time.

DUTIES

The Elections Committee is in charge of the election of the Members-at-Large of the Board of Directors. All members may be asked to report for a planning and instruction meeting prior to the day of the election at the time designated in the Call or by the chair.

The committee is expected to report in advance of the opening of the polls on the day of the election. When the polls are closed, the tabulated results must be attested by the signatures of all the committee.

ADVANCE PREPARATION

Before the day of the elections, the physical facilities of the elections room should be surveyed and all arrangements planned.

PREPARATION OF BALLOTS/BOARD MEMBERS-AT LARGE

All of the names for ballot voting of NFMC Board Members-at-Large shall be listed alphabetically, with no distinction being made between Nomination Committee nominees and those nominated from the floor.

VOTING FOR BOARD MEMBERS-AT-LARGE

It shall not be a requirement to vote for a specific number of Board Members-at-Large.

CREDENTIALS TO BE CHECKED

The alphabetical list of registered voters which is prepared by the Credentials Committee is used to identify voters as they present their Voting Credential at the door of the polling place. No person shall be admitted to the polling place without a Voting Credential. The National Treasurer/Credentials Chair shall identify voters as they enter the polls at the time of the elections and present their credentials

COMMITTEE ASSIGNMENTS

One member of the Elections Committee must be assigned to each voting station at all times.

Two members of the Committee should be assigned to the door, one on the outside to be sure that members have their voting credential with them, to answer questions, and to supervise the order of entrance; the one on the inside announces when more voters may be admitted.

CONVENTIONS – ELECTIONS COMMITTEE – CONTINUEDPARLIAMENTARIAN

The Parliamentarian is present to supervise the elections during the entire time that the Committee is at work from the time of the meeting before the polls open until the polls are closed, the vote tabulated, and the final report prepared. In the waiting room, he/she may answer questions relating to general information. He/she must be called if voters have questions after entering the voting booths.

CLOSING OF POLLS

When the established hour for closing the poll arrives, any eligible voter waiting in line shall be admitted to the room and permitted to cast his/her vote. At the appointed hour, the Chair announces that the polls are closed, and no one else is admitted.

TABULATING THE VOTE

After the polls have closed, the vote is tabulated by members of the Elections Committee and attested by the Parliamentarian. Forms for this tabulation are provided by the Chair of the Committee.

REPORTS

The Final report should show

1. The total number eligible to vote as reported by the Credentials Chair and adopted by the Members as the polling list.
2. Total number of ballots cast.
3. The plurality necessary for election.
4. Total number of votes for each nominee.

REPORT PROCEDURE

In reporting the vote for Members-at-Large, nominees shall be listed in the order of the number of votes received, listing first the person receiving highest number of votes.

The final report shall be signed by all members of the Elections Committee.

Two tabulation sheets and one copy of the final report shall be placed in a sealed envelope and given to the Recording Secretary together with two copies of the final report, one for the Secretary and one for the President.

The Chair of the Elections Committee shall give the final report to the President, who shall then declare the winners, as scheduled on the Convention programs. Any spoken announcement of the elected NFMC Members-at-Large shall be made in the order of the number of votes received, but the actual number of votes received by each individual shall not be given.

In the event that not all the Members-at-Large are elected by the Convention, the Board of Directors shall complete the election.

TABULATION SHEETS AND REPORT FORMS

The Elections Chair is responsible for the preparation of tabulation sheets and report forms. The tabulation sheets should list the names of the nominees for Members-at-Large in alphabetical order according to their surnames. These names should be arranged with a column for filling in the figures.
